ANNEXATION SOUGHT BY CAMPBELL MANOR

HAMILTON SQUARE SUBDIVISION PROJECT APPROVED BY COUNCIL

Property owners in the Campbell Manor tract fringing the westerly city limits and embracing thirty building lots on Victor, Amato and Hedegard avenues seek annexation to the city of Campbell in a petition submitted to the city council Monday evening. While some of the city councilmen expressed favorable reaction to the petition, Mayor Richard Morton and City Attorney Joseph Bonacina contended that the petition in its present form is but an expression of interest toward annexation and that petitioners might be advised to acquaint themselves with prescribed procedure before the council can act. The city is not allowed by law to give consent to any such petition, Bonacina stated, pointing out that the boundaries commission must first give consent. Petitioners proposed the annexation election be held simulataeously with the municipal election in April. Councilman James R. Arends moved that petitioners be so advised of proper procedure, so that annexatioon may be under way.

Nestor Barrett, planning consultant said that the zoning ordinance now in effect calls for a procedure for issuance of building permits, recommending that the county building inspector be furnished copies of the ordinance and map.

Barrett presented a subdivision map as submitted to the Santa Clara County planning commission for the proposed Lewis E. Smith subdivision adjacent on the northerly city limits. Barrett said the fifty foot width proposed for the Harrison avenue extension would be too narrow for the heavy traffic which this street may be expected to carry. Council recommended the street be sixty feet in width and that storm water drainage be such as not to cause a problem to the city.

The subdivision map for Hamilton Square No. 2 subdivision was approved by the council Monday. Aldo Savio, representing City Engineer Mark E. Thomas presented the final map together with bonds for improvements of curbs, gutters, sidewalks, and sanitary sewers and storm drains in the amounts of $1,700 and $2,600 respectively plus $289 to be deposited with the city for engineering fees and $195 to cover charges for one fire hydrant for five years.

Stephen Goodman, manager of Sanitation District No. 4, said in a letter to the council that the bond posted is adequate to cover the cost of the proposed sewers..

Savio reported that improvements had been completed on Hamilton Square Unit No. 1, and the city engineer recommended that they be accepted by the city.

Mission Taxi company represented by attorney Vincent Bruno, was granted a taxi cab fare increase when put to a vote, Monday night. The firm was granted permission to increase city taxi fares to 50 cents for the first mile with five cents for each additional one sixth of a mile. Original fares were 35 cents within the city limits. There were no protests from the council audience regarding the fare increase. Mayor Morton voted no, but the motion carried when all other councilmen except Oliver P. Jensen who was absent, voted yes. The mayor said it represented a 40 per cent increase, but taxi owner Ernest L. Gee said revenue at the present rate schedule would not permit them to continue operation.

First reading of city traffic ordinance amendment was given at the council meeting Monday. The ordinance would officially change the name of the Santa Clara-Los Gatos highway to that of Winchester Road, and that of Giles Way to Cherry Lane. It also disignates which are to be through streets in Campbell and the intersections at which boulevard stop signs are erected.

Campbell Fire Chief Jack B. Scott was granted $450.00 for additional fire hydrants in the city.

HYDE, PRIESTLY REAPPOINTED TO PLANNING GROUP

Homer Hyde and Kenneth Priestly, members of the Campbel Planning Commission were reappointed by Mayor Richard W. Morton to four year terms to begin at the expiration of their present terms, the mayor informed the city council Monday night.

Hyde and Priestly drew terms of one year each, following their appointment in December of last year to the seven man commission.

Both Hyde and Priestly expressed willingness to continue their present duties. Hyde is secretary of the commission. Priestly was recently appointed a member of a committee to correlate acivities for a city wide street survey.

Council Declines To Engage In The Jail Controversy

A letter from the Town Manager of Los Gatos seeking that the City of Campbell adopt a resolution comparable to theirs regarding County jail conditions was filed and no action taken by the city council here Monday night.

Mayor Richard Morton said he personally felt that enactment of any such resolution condemning deplorable conditions in one institution and not in others is at this time highly political and controversial. He saw no reason for bringing presuure on the County Board of Supervisors in this specific case when they are already cognizant of conditions not only at the county jail but also at the juvenile detention home and the relief home and because they have a citizens advisory committee headed by the Rev. James H. Strayer of the Calvary Methodist Church working on a report on these condiions. The committee is made up of clergy and laymen who are doing some overall planning for correcting these alleged conditions.

Councilman Joseph Gomes in moving that the letter be filed said he too felt the proposal was controversial and that the committee named by the board should have an opportunity to report their findings.

County Planners Hear Requests Of Local Residents

On the agenda of the County of Santa Clara Planning Commission Tuesday were matters concerning Campbell residents and property.

A public hearing was held on the petition of Wilson W. Workman to reclassify property form R-1; B-D to R-1; B-1 zone, or such other classification as the commission may recommend. This property is located on the easterly side of Quito Road between McCoy avenue and the southern Pacific Railroad right of way.

L. W. Harmon, local realtor petition the county planners to reclassify property from an R-1 to C-1 zone on holdings located at the northwesterly corner of the intersection of the San Jose-Los Gatos Road and Eisenhower Drive.

The planning commission continued the public hearing of Ernest and Gulietmas Barbano to reclassify certain property from an R-2H to a C-2 zone, on property located at the southeasterly corner of the intersection of Campbell avenue and Barbano avenue.

Hearing was also heard of the application of Mrs. H. A. Greeson for an adjustment to permit an addition to an existing dwelling to encroac hinto the required side yard on the street side of property located at the northeasterly corner of the intersection of Peggy Avenue and Wekiva Avenue.

Also to come up at the last meeting of hte County planners was the proposal to change the name of South San Tomas to South Hacienda avenue.

Gathering round the Christmas table of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chappell on Grant avenue, will be Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fryar, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Robinson, of San Diego, the Ralph Fryars, and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wallace and family of Fresno.

Pelican's Plight Causes Power Loss

A weary pelican not only got himself fried to death, Saturday morning on the edge of San Francisco Bay, near Sunnyvale, but inconvenienced Campbell area residents for about an hour, by shorting out the high voltage lines which caused a power failure in the city.

Robert Willmoth, Pacific Gas and Electric service foreman at San Jose, said the big bird, evidently lighted on one of the lines and spread his wings to cause the power failure.

A patrol of the circuit by crewmen of the San Jose station, revealed the giant bird at the base of one of the lines near the water's edge. The shorted line knocked out the station which services the Campbell area, he said.

Three Campbell Union High School juniors show one of their schoolmates who is stricken with polio how they are helping in the 1954 March of Dimes by addressing envelopes for the mail appeal next month. CAMBRIAN PARK VOTES 11-1 FOR SCHOOL BONDS

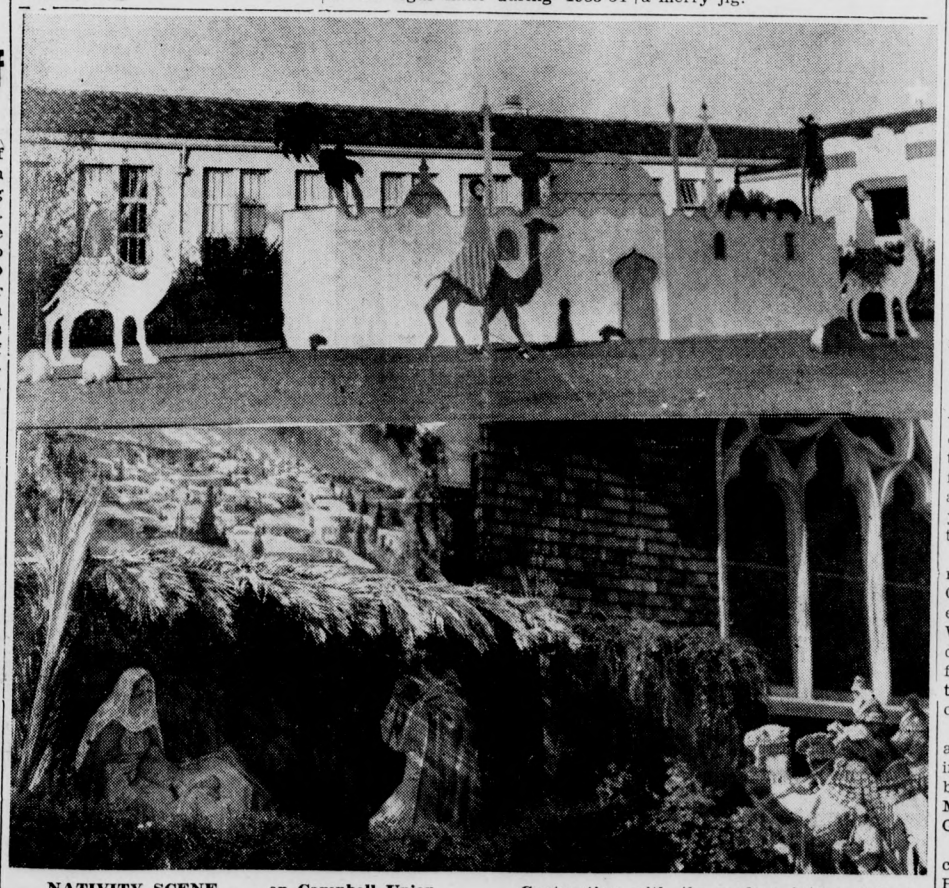
Cambrian Elementary School District voters approved, better than 11-1, Tuesday, a $200,000 school bond and $600,000 apportionment limitation election.

The vote was 454 to 40 for the school bonds, and 452 to 39 for the state apportionment not to exceed $600,000.

It was the largest vote turnout in five bond elections since 1946. Votes cast Tuesday was approximately 25 percent of the 1800 eligible to vote.

Superintendent Delos M. Bagby said yesterday that building is expected to start in April at the Foxworthy and Ross avenue site for a school of eight classrooms, kindergarten, multi-use room and administrative office. A second school of six classrooms, multi-use room and administrative offices planned for a site, not yet purchased at Harris and Leigh avenue will also be built in the spring if the district's application receives early consideration from the state.

Bond money voted in the election will keep the district bonded to its legal limit during 1953-54



NATIVITY SCENE . . . on Campbell Union High School lawn made possible through cooperation of the Campbell Stamp Association, the High School and the City Council, is a modern interpretation of the Christmas scene and includes the three wise men and the silhouetted background of the town of Bethlehem over which shines the evening star. It was prepared by the school industrial art departments, directed by Mrs. Marion Winston, with cut-outs by the shop, both wood and tin, directed by Bob Culp and Frank Meiss.

Contrasting with the modern interpretation of the Christmas scene on the lawn of the High School is the nativity scene in front of the Congregational Church of Campbell on Central avenue (below). There, a staff camera caught the early morning sun lighting the manger where Mary and Joseph bend over the Christ Child, as the three wise men approach bearing gifts of myrrh and incense. The city of Bethlehem in the background and the Gothic arch of the present day church windows indicate the continuing yet age-old significance of the Christmas season.

SANTA CLAUS COMES TO TOWN IN A ROCKET

Santa Claus will come to Campbell Monday night in a rocket. In this case, the "rocket" is a snappy conovertible belonging to Norm Corvello, of Campbell Hardware. Santa will start his trek from the Cambrian Park area, and enter Campbell proper at Winchester avenue.

He will stop at all stores of the Campbell merchants stamp association in the city. At each store, Santa's arrival will be announced in a blare of trumpets, throated by Campbell Union High School musicians, under the direction of musical instructor Richard Gordon.

From Santa's loaded pack, goodies will be distributed to the kiddies of the area.

Starting from the Cambrian Hardware he will go over Casey Road to Winchester, then east on Campbell avenue stopping at each of the Stamp Association membership stores.

EARTHQUAKE FELT IN CAMPBELL AREA

An earthquake tremor of mild proportions was felt in Campbell, Los Gatos, Saratoga and San Jose at 9:15 last night, but no damage was reported. It is said, however, that Christmas tree ornaments did a merry jig.

ALL-OUT SUPPORT IS PLEDGED PLANNERS IN STREET SURVEY

Campbell Planning Commission received pledges of wholeheart-support from area civic and business leaders at a meeting Thursday night in the Fire House where they organized for a city-wide street survey tentatively set for some time in February

Pledging support of their organizations were: Milton Nelson, president of Campbell Kiwanis Club; L. W. Harmon, representing Campbell Rotary Club; Verle Grizzle, Chamber of Commerce president; Cel Gerevas, president of Campbell Merchant Association; Laurance J. Hill, superintendent of Campbell Union High School district; Neal Royer, principal of Rosemary School, representing William C. Henley, superintendent of Campbell Elementary school; Marion Hill, representing Thelma Solari, from Campbell Business and Professional women; George French, president of Campbell Lions Club; Don Gracier, president of Campbell Junior Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. Jessie Olson, president, American Legion Auxiliary No. 596, and Harold F. Adams, commander of American Legion Post No. 596.

In addition, Mayor Richard W. Morton, and city councilmen, Joseph M. Dahl, Oliver P. Jensen, James B. Arends Jr., city attorney Joseph A. Bonacina, Campbell Fire Chief Jack B. Scott, and police chief Robert J. Locke were present to offer suggestions and support.

John M. Chargin, chairman of the planning commission, conducted the meeting at which Nestor Barrett, city planning consultant, outlined the plan for compiling accurate statistical data, on origin and destination of foot and vehicular traffic within the city. Study will serve as a basis for future recommendations to the city council concerning street improvements, parking and other vehicle facilities, safeguards for pedestrian safety, and other uses for which the information is necessary.

It was agreed at the meeting that six checking locations be established to compile data as well as several bulk traffic counters. These points will be located aat the following points within the city.

On the San Jose-Los Gatos Road, 500 feet south of Hamilton avenue; on Hamilton avenue between Railroad and the San Jose-Los Gatos road; On Central avenue, 200 feet south of Hamilton; two stations on Winchester road—one at a point 200 feet north of Hamilton, one at the south city limits and one on Campbell avenue near the west city limits.

Barrett said the survey would take minimum of sixteen hours, with the aid of 150 students, 55 adults, local police and auxiliary. Innumerable hours of checking, compiling, and interpreting the statistical data is also required, Barrett said, and can only be accomplished with the aid of members of local civic organizations.

To have the survey conducted by an outside agency would cost the city approximately $5,000, he said.

All representatives offered full support of their organizations. Cel Gerevas, president of the Campbell Stamp Association, pledged $200 to help defray the cost of hiring additional auxiliary police.

Women's organizations agreed to take over the job of counting, and sorting data. Police and fire chiefs offered all the help they could muster, and other organizations said they could be called upon to supply the necessary adult manpower.

Laurance J. Hill said it would make a fine civic project for high school students, and said both students and teachers had agreed to cooperate.

Mayor Morton commented on the 100 percent aattendance of civic representatives invited, and said it indicated the interest of the citizens of Campbell in the welfare of their city.

Planning commissioners Homer Hyde, Hollis M. Logue, and Guy Farley were appointed by Chargin as coordinating committee members, to work with heads of organizations in getting the survey underway.

Bonacina, the city attorney, and the mayor said that all workers engaged in the survey would be covered by adequate city insurance.

Hancie Naylor who for thirty years was a teacher in the Campbell School, was declared winner of the Campbell Press Circulation Club contest by judges Friday night, the award being an all-expense trip to Honolulu. Details of judges report on page 4.

EDITORIAL

YOU CAN'T BUY THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

Let us be thankful at this Christmas season for the national and world progress toward peace and for the spirit that moves men toward higher ideals in living. Keep this spirit, if you will, ever constant in your hearts that we may do our part in making happier homes, a friendlier community, a more progressive nation, a better world.

Even across the Pacific at Panmunjom, twenty-two men who have indicated a willingness to desert their country, have not forsaken their interest in Christmas. It won't be the same as that which we enjoy here in America, for the spirit isn't there. They have asked for a tree, decorations, candy and cake at their prison camp, all of which will be provided from money sent over from some source. But money will not buy the Christmas spirit, the laughter of little American children, the chimes of church bells, the prayers of loved ones, the understanding of Christianity and Americanism. In some way, the spirit of "peace on earth, good will toward men" may penetrate their crust of resentment and resistance. If so, it may recover their senses to return home. We hope so, for at Christmas time it is the urge from within to wish the best for all men.

POTENTIALS FOR TOMORROW

Plans for an all-out survey of traffic on the important streets of Campbell were completed last Thursday evening at a meeting of the planning commission and civic organization leaders. The extent of co-operation extended toward this survey was most gratifying to both the commissioners and to the city officials who stated that if the proposed work was done otherwise the cost would be prohibitive. It shows also a healthy interest within the city toward zoning of property for business and industry at practical locations.

Campbell to be sure, is destined to grow in importance as a municipality within the next five years. The time to design a pattern for this growth is now. This is the heart of rich Santa Clara Valley with its healthiest of all climates, richest of all soils; this is the fifty mile apex for agricultural, scenic, industrial and residential wonderland in the west. Never sell Campbell short today, for it is rich with potentials for tomorrow.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Profile of The Week

This column attempts to acquaint Campbell residents with the background of most of its leading citizens, to make for a greater interest in the activities of the Campbell area.

Pictures from the files of the Campbell Press will be drawn, by lot, for the first of the articles. When this supply is exhausted, pictures of newer residents will be taken, to run in conjunction with stories.

Edward F. Tablak, well-known local insurance executive has long been active in Campbell civic affairs.

He came to Campbell at the end of World War II and became acquainted with the Santa Clara Valley while stationed at Moffett Field at a lighter than-air pilot. During the war Tablak served as a guide for United Nations delegates and for domestic and foreign correspondents throughout the Bay area.

He was born and reared in Monessen, Pennsylvania, a steel town just outside Pittsburg. He attended the local high school from which he was graduated with honors, and from which he received a full scholarship to the University of Pennsylvania.

While at the University, Tablak, aside from being a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, a college honorary leadership society, was active on many extra curricula activities. He was a member of the debating team, the student government, and business manager of the college newspaper, published three times a week, the "Pitt News."

Tablak now lives with his wife and family at 661 Lucot Way. His wife, June is an active member at the local level of Association of American University Women, a national organization of collegiate women.

They have four children, three daughters and a small son. Deborah, 7, Pamela, 6, attend local schools, as will other members of the family, Cynthia, 4, and Jeffrey, 1, when the time comes.

Tablak is president of the Campbell Community Chest, treasurer of Family Service Association, on the board of directors of Visiting Nurses Association, First vice-president of the Kiwanis Club of Willow Glen, Chairman of YMCA of Campbell, First vice-president of San Tomas Parent Teachers Association.

Tablak is an ardent handball player and plays it whenever he gets the opportunity. While at college he played as a member of the team, which won several local champnionships.

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS

The good Lord softens the heart of man
At Christmas time for a happy span;
The wide world forgets all cold reason
Glorified by Love's perfect season.

The rules we live by change
To new ideas, sweet and strange.
Cheery bells, from high church steeples,
Sound joyous refrains to all of the peoples.

Of their hearts: Now their eyes see
What was hidden by practicability.
The beauty of a radiant tree
The starlit Holy Night,
Soft glow of candlelight.

New faith in many shining faces
With joy ruling in some strange places,
Instead of getting, people are giving,
Is that the secret of happy living?

Giving themselves, giving their treasure,
No thought of profit, no thought of measure.
Giving from wealth, giving from need,
Giving with no thought of color or creed.

Living as did the Savior of old,
By the Golden Rule, not the rule of gold.

The Campbell Gambol

THE PARROT that watches TV and sounds off whenever a cat, a dog or an automobile is shown on the screen is but one of the talented birds to be found in Campbell . . . Claude S. Barham of 773 San Jose-Los Gatos Road in Campbell, told a friend the other day that he has a canary bird that can whistle "Comin' thru the Rye" . . the friend said, "yeah, and I got a dog that can bark "Yankee Doodle" . . . "no kidding, I mean it, my bird actually whistles 'Comin' thru the Rye' and you can come over anytime and hear it!" . . . . Pee-wee is the name of the bird, and its little throat throbs with song whenever visitors arrive . . . was trained by Mrs. Howard Kirk of 63 South Second Avenue in Campbell who has two birds of her own that can also whistle the same song . . . she takes them a few days after coming from the nest and whistles the same song to them in confinement . . . some birds, however, that pay no attention to her will not cooperate, but those that do soon learn the song and Pee-wee was one of her best pupils . . . says she has a friend in Oakland also training birds, some to whistle 'Yankee Doodle, and recently one was taught to whistle, "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" which she sold for one hundred dollars, and I'd whistle it myself for that kind of money.

THE CAMPBELL Fire station is soon to have a flag pole from which will be flown the stars and stripes of the United States and the bear flag of the California Republic . . . there is a little known bit of history about the bear flag and its birthplace at Corning where Eugene Barnes is now publishing a daily newspaper, which this writer got first hand from the kin of one of the original makers of the flag . . . these notes were taken twenty years ago and the story sold to a newspaper syndicate, but so far as I can learn, the story was never published . . . "the bear flag hoisted triumphantly in 1846 at Monterey to signify the independent Republic of California, was made far more crudely and under just as trying circumstances as was the American flag by Betsy Ross. It was at the old Moon house on the banks of the Sacramento river, four miles east of what is now Corning in Tehama County that Henry L. Ford, a nephew of William Moon, first suggested making the bear flag. There on the floor of this building, using a flour bag from Chili, and the red flannel shirt from one of the workmen, Ford and others present cut out the star and border, then someone crudely painted the likeness of a grizzly bear and the words, "California Republic". William Ide of Red Bluff some twenty miles north arrived and took the flag on to Monterey where on July 7, 1846, Commodore Stout hoisted it. Ide was named president of the new republic but only for a few days as California then joined the United States.

"The Moon house, long a landmark was destroyed by fire in 1910. Built in 1845 it had a four bedroom hotel, a bar and a store from which rice, beans and sugar were sold at one time for a dollar a pound. Ford, who had fashioned the bear flag, was a nephew of Nathaniel Merrill, first grain grower of Tehama County whose daughter told this story to Warren Woodson and myself. Woodson, now deceased, was the founder of Corning. Ford and Moon, according to Miss Merrill, had felt coldly toward Mexican rule in California prior to 1946 because no land grants had been issued to them" . . . so there it is in The Campbell Press, the first time in print, an authentic account of the origin of the bear flag for the California Republic.

Mrs. Mary Hummel of Kenneth avenue is currently entertaining her cousin, Jack Hummel AKAN—U. S. Navy on a Christmas leave from the U. S. S. Antietam, anchored at Bayonno, New Jersey. Jack, who arrived December 13, will visit his mother, Mrs. Marjorie Hummel in Bakersfield before returning to duty aboard the carrier.

FILLS ROOM . . . a palm tree started from three little leaves today dominates an entire room in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miranda, of 146 Harrison street. Ferns, vines and other potted plants grow in verdant profusion throughout the rest of the house. In her back yard is a banana tree weigted down with ready-to-eat fruit. Other tropical plants grow in orderly and well-cared for fashion in her garden including Hawaiian taro, passion fruit, and practically every kind of western fruit tree.

Ripe Bananas Are Found In Miranda Garden

The house and garden of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miranda, of 146 Harrison Street, Campbell are full of surprises.

Blooming in the backyard, in mid-December, is a full-grown banana tree weighted down with read-to-eat fruit. Elsewhere on the Miranda 45 by 50 foot lot there grows, in flowering profusion, prune, plum, apple, loquat, almond, orange, lemon, walnut, peach and fig trees.

From her kitchen window, Mrs. Miranda looks out on a patch of Hawaiian Taro plant from which the island staple, poi, is made. These towering, broad-leaved, green plants have sprouted from tiny shoots, under the "green thumb" of Mrs. Miranda.

A garden enthusiast would probably exclaim over the variety of other plants in the Miranda garden. There is pineapple, passion fruit, pohasse, tea leaves, (from which hula skirts are made) as well as ginger plants, and potted varieties of many other types of plants in various sizes and stages of growth.

Inside the house, a palm tree which she planted twelve years ago from three small leaves, now completely fills a 10 by 14 foot room. Beneath the spreading palm, a bird nest fern adds to the outdoor-indoor atmosphere. Throughout the house are other plants, including callal lillies rubber plants, vines, and so many other varieties that even Mrs. Miranda has difficulty in remembering their names.

The banana tree in her back yard is her special pride. She brought it from San Diego in a suitcase six years ago, and has endured many caustic comments from her family and friends about its chances of survival. Her patient efforts in its cultivation paid off recently when she collected a $50 bet from her husband, when it bore edible fruit.

While her friends attribute her horticultural successes to a natural "green thumb", both Mr. and Mrs. Miranda acquired an early love of growing plants in the island of Oahu, in the Hawaiian Islands, where they were both born and reared.

They came to Campbell in 1926. They have four children, one daughter and three sons.; Evelyn, the present Mrs. Parks, of Garrison Drive, Jess Miranda, Chula Vista; James, Santa Clara; and Danver, who is a barber at Penhall's shop on Campbell avenue.

Court Of Honor Held By Scouts In San Tomas

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Hunter were honored by Boy Scout Troop 30 and Troop 30 Scouters at a Christmas party held December 14 in the San Tomas school cafetorium.

Mr. Hunter, who recently resigned as Scoutmaster of Troop 30, after four years of service, was presented with a handsome wristwatch, and Mrs. Hunter received beautiful red roses. The presentation was made by Wm. Cahill, chairman of Troop 30 Scouters, and a gracious acknowledgement was made by the Hunters.

A solemn ceremony opened the party with scouts symbolizing the 12 points of the Scout Law by lighting candles.

Clever skits were performed by three patrols and the Explorer Quartet presented several Christmas carols.

San Tomas "Christmas Carol" was enacted by nine of the scouts and Miss Carole Swan, with "Lionel Scarrymore" narrating the metamorphosis of Scrouge.

Trees decorated by the patrols for distribution in children's wards of the county hospital were judged and Kodiak Patrol received the plaque for the most decorative tree.

Refreshments were served at the successful evening of entertainment.

Christian Science Lesson Sermon

The answer to the question "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" will be given in the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Christian Science Society, Country Women's Club House House, Sunday, December 20. This Lesson-Sermon, comprised of citations from the Bible and from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, will include the account of the spiritual creation given in the first chapter of Genesis:

"So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them" (Genesis 1:27).

Following is one of the correlative passages from Science and Health which will also be read: "Christian Science presents unfoldment, not accretion; it manifests no material growth from molecule to mind, but an impartation of the Divine Mind to man and the universe. Proportionately as human generation ceases, the unbroken links of eternal, harmonious being will be spiritually discerned; and man, not of the earth earthy but coexistent with God, will appear." (p. 68).

Congregational Church Notes

Two services will be conducted at the Congregational church by Dr. Corwin H. Olds on Sunday.

Both 9:30 services and 11 a. m. services will include church school and presentation of two anthems by the Congregational choir. Rev. Olds will repeat his 9:30 sermon at the 11:00 oervice.

Sunday evening the church school Christmas program will be presented at 6:30 p. m.

Baptism services were conducted for nine infants and six new members were welcomed by the church at December 6th services.

The Youth and Senior Choirs under the direction of Richard Gordon will sing. A Service of Baptism and Reception of members will be included in both services.

A Christmas Carol Service will be held Sunday evening at 7:30 in the Church Sanctuary. This will be a service of carols from many countries with a narrator to tell the Christmas story. The Youth and Senior Choirs will provide the music.

The Church School Christmas program will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the Church Sanctuary. "The Pageant of the Holy Grail", by Walter Russell Bowie will be presented by children and youth of the Church. This production is under the direction of Evelyn Buck and Dean Chamberlin.

CAMPBELL HI-LITES

by Bob Olson

IT'S CHRISTMAS TIME
WITH TWO WEEK'S VACATION
NO WONDER WE'RE ALL
FILLED WITH ELATION.
WE LOVE EVERYONE,
AND THEY LOVE US TOO.
SO WHO IN THE WORLD
HAS THE TIME TO BE BLUE?
WE SING THE OLD HYMNS,
WE TRIM ALL WITH HOLLY,
FORGET ALL OUR WOES
TAKE THE TIME TO BE JOLLY
FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON IS
WITH US ONCE MORE
AND WE LIKE WHAT IT DOES
TO THE FELLOW NEXT DOOR.
BUT WHAT MEANS THE MOST
IS THE WONDER IT BRINGS TO THE GIVER WHO GIVES
AND THE SINGER WHO SINGS.
WE'RE ALL AT OUR BEST
WHEN WE'RE DOING FOR ANOTHER.
AT CHRISTMAS WE TREAT
EVERY MAN LIKE A BROTHER
SO SING THE GAY CAROLS
AND WISH YOUR FRIENDS
WELL
RING A GAY CHRISTMAS BELL
WITH A GAY HOLIDAY SPIRIT

You didn't have to be dressed like an angel or a Santa Claus to sense the Christmas spirit in the high school this week. It is true that everyone was expected to carry on with the work "as usual", but underneath the guise of occupation there was an "I love everybody" attitude so refreshing during the holiday season that one wonders why it can't be maintained all year.

It is touching to have someone come up to you and say, "I'm sorry about the misunderstandings we've been having. Let's shake hands and forget our differences. After all, it's Christmas time!"

You're greeted by a large Christmas tree in the main corridor entrance way as soon as you enter school. This sixten-footer gaily decorated with silver and blue balls will very likely be the most used evergreen in the county. It will be the centerpiece of the gay "Joyeux Noel" dance to be held in the girls gym Friday night from 9-12. Then it will be given to the use of service clubs for needy childrens' Christmas parties, and will eventually find its home in the living room of someone who never expected half so fine a tannenbaum.

By now you must have seen the outdoor Christmas display on the school's East lawn. These wise men and that Bethlehem represent the joint efforts of Mr. Berg, who designed the original layout, Mrs. Winston whose art students painted it, and Messrs. Culp and Meiss, whose woodshop students put it up in such sturdy fashion. Just watching these people at work was a good lesson in the cooperative spirit the season brings out in people.

Miss Carson trimmed a neat tree in the library too in spite of the busiest year that schoolroom has ever known. She and members of her social affairs commission entertained the Santa Clara hospital branch of Campbell High School in a gay party last night, using that tree and twenty high school dancers. Unfortunately this commission is one of the school's most unpublicized groups. You never hear about it until you need it---or until you come down sick as Russeline Haggard did with the mumps the other day. Every school convalescent receives a "get well quick" greeting card.

But, without a doubt, the one group, more than any other, which gives the whole school a lift at Christmas time is the Campbell High School Choir. They do much more than come around by every classroom's door the day before Christmas vacation. Their very practice sessions are felt and enjoyed by all of us, for after rehearsing in the morning, choir students go about school in pairs linked arm-in-arm between classes singing Christmas songs spontaneously.

But then if you were among the crowd in the auditorium last night, you know how good our choir is. The whole student body saw that same program in assemblies yesterday, and the inspiration engendered by its music and message permeated most of us all day long.

Tomorrow, during sixth period, most of us are sponsoring Christmas parties in our classrooms. This, too, is a learning experience, for the students themselves plan the period, bring the record players, and records, and games, and provide their own refreshments. Most teachers look forward to this annual experience as much as the pupils, for it gives us a wonderful opportunity to see a whole new side of the group we've been trying to inspire with English, history, or business arithmetic the rest of the year. Last year the most subdued introvert in our room ended up leading the rest of us in a gay Charleston. Perhaps many of us save our true selves for the relaxed atmosphere and freedom of a party.

And so we've run on here about the Chrismas spirit in a fashion that is duplicated every year even in the Hearst editorials. But what of the all-year-round Christmas spirit? Aren't there a few of us so naturally unselfish that we don't need a tree, or a carol, or a holiday pageant to practice the peace on earth, good will towards men philosophy? Well, there is one.

You'll find her in Mr. Hill's main office. Miss Farley, his secretary, is one of the few individuals we've ever met who is never too busy for friendship—or that indescribable "gemutlichkeit" we call the holiday spirit, every year about this time. For she never questions your sincerity, and there's never any doubt about hers. Spending her days in service to others, Mae is so naturally unselfish that she doesn't have to make a fetish of it.

In an age when too many of us are so busy doing things, that we don't have time for people, Miss Farley fills her day doing favors for others and losing herself in others. To those of us lucky enough to occasionally come under her spell, Mae Farley represents the Christmas spirit all year long.

California produced a record crop of 48,974,000 pounds of honey in 1952.

CAMBRIAN GROUP PLANS HOLIDAY FESTIVITIES

Cambrian Park Improvement Association, semi-official body for Cambrian Park residents has planned a busy season holiday season, and has made long range plans for better living in the Cambrian Park area.

Meeting tonight in the home of president Don Findlay, on Weeth Drive, members of the board of directors, Mrs. Lee Meyers, vice-president, John Banks, chairman of the ways and means committee, Lee Diel, chairman of the steering committee and Mrs. Harry Bloom, publicity chairman, as well as interested residents of Cambrian Park will discuss plans for a new adult recreation program, to include a theater group, a bowling team, a golf club, woodworking group and other similar recreation groups under the sponsorship of the Cambrian Park Improvement association.

Bill Hanley is also scheduled to report on conferences with county engineers regarding the drainage facilities and problems peculiar to the Cambrian Park area.

For the Christmas season, the organization hos arranged for Saint Nicholas to put in a personal appearance at the Cambrian Park' Plaza Sunday afternoon from 2 p. m. until 5 p. m. unless duties at the north pole or elsewhere claim his attention before that time, officials said.

Santa said he would be available to talk to all the children of the Cambrian Park area who would like to tell him what they want for Christmas. For each child, Santa will have an appropriate Yuletide gift with the cooperation of all the merchants of the Cambrian Park area.

Lyman Ash of Alton Court is cooperating with Santa in greeting the kiddies of the area.

A New Year's Eve Dance is in the planning stage to which all residents of the area are invited, Mrs. Lee Liel, in charge of arrangements, said yesterday.

The dance is to be held in the American Legion Hall in Los Gatos. Committee members are working out minor details. A band will furnish dance music from 8:30 to 1:00 p. m. Refreshments and hors d'oeuvres are also planned, officials said. Arrangements are being made to accommodate at least 300 people.

Ross Trowbridge Shows Slides of Trip To Kiwanis

Ross Trowbridge was chairman of the Campbell Kiwanis Club meeting Tuesday noon. He was also the main speaker, and furnished the entertainment portion of the meeting.

Trowbridge gave a talk about his recent trip to South America and illustrated the account of his travels with colored slides.

Next week's program will be the annual Christmas party at the clubhouse in the Library building. Each member is asked to bring a child to partake of the Christmas dinner. Small gifts will then be distributed, members said.

Adventist Pastor Urges Support For World Missions

The annual Ingathering Appeal, to help support and extend world-wide mission work, was launched recently by the Campbell Seventh-day Adventist Church, according to Harold H. Hare, pastor.

Rehabilitation work in Korea will come in for a large share of funds raised in this year's Appeal, Pastor Hare said. In Korea, Adventists operate war orphanages and hospitals which are still overflowing as a result of the Korean War, the pastor added.

The local church plans to reach its $2,000.00 goal this year in its campaign through member and business firm contributions and door-to-door solicitation.

Community welfare work done here by the Adventist Church in 1953 is valued at over $2,000.00, 200 food baskets were distributed to those in need, 118 treatments were given to the sick and over 2,664 hours of Christian help given. Mrs. Genevieve Black, home missions director of the Church here, reveals.

'Christian missions at home and abroad have always been one of the most powerful forces for enlightening backward peoples," Pastor Hare said in announcing this year's drive. "Millions of persons are being helped to help themselves," he added. "This is the effective way to build solidly for a more progressive free world."

California has more licensed nurses than any other State.

Survivors include his wife, Irene, a son, Guy Dodson of Campbell, three daughters, Mrs. Edna Black of Campbell, Mrs. Thelma Starling of San Jose and Mrs. Pearl Morris of Los Gatos. He was a native of Alabama.

Mrs. Greta Cushman and Mrs. Maxine Elsey are program chairmen for the event which starts at 7 p. m., Lyle E. Cushman, pastor, said.

At the close of the program, the children will enjoy a Christmas party at which holiday goodies will be distributed.

The first transcontinental nonstop flight, made by Lts. Kelly and Macready, was made May 23, 1923 from Long Island to San Diego in 26 hours and 50 minutes.

Area Residents Enjoy CUHS Yule Play Last Night

An estimated 1100 Campbell area residents enjoyed Campbell Union High School's Christmas production, "The Juggler of Notre Dame", presented last night in the High School auditorium as their annual contribution to the community.

Over 300 students participated in the production which featured the modern dance group under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Jennings, the massed choir and glee clubs under the direction of Frank Triana, the orchestra under the direction of Richard Gordon, and the drama group under instructor Kenneth Wallace.

Selections from the orchestra, "Hallelujah Chorus from the Messiah", and "Song of Jupiter" by Handel, were followed by "Angelus From Scenes Pittoresques" by Massenet, to set the mood for the massed choir presentations, "How Brightly Beams the Morning Star", by Schlegal, "Silent Night," "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," "I Hear Along Our Street," "No Candle Was There," and "No Fire."

Other High School choir renditions, "Gloria Patri," "Cherubim Song," "Hodie Christus Natus Est," "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks" were well-received by the audience which commented later on their feeling and finesse.

The mixed chorus, the choir, and the orchestra set a musical background for the interpretive dance group presentation of "The Juggler of Notre Dame," directed by Wallace, and effectively aided by art and lighting effects created by the high school art deparmtent under the direction of Mrs. Marion Winston.
